

Stephanie Henkle, soprano, is a graduate of Ohio Wesleyan University and Indiana University. She completed her doctoral coursework at The Ohio State University.

Winner of the Metropolitan Opera District Auditions, First Place in the Opera/Columbus Competition, the NATSAA State Artist Award and the Eleanor Steber Foundation Award, Ms. Henkle has performed as a soloist at Carnegie Recital Hall, The Kennedy Center with the National Symphony, Washington's National Cathedral and concert halls throughout the United States, Canada, Germany, Austria, Hungary and the Czech Republic.

Ms. Henkle has enjoyed faculty positions at Denison University, Otterbein College, Capital University, the University of Findlay, Cedarville University and Kenyon College, where she headed the voice division. She has taught Lyric Diction, Class Voice and Opera Workshop at the college level, and maintains a large private voice studio in Westerville, OH. Many of her students are enjoying careers as professional Classical and Musical Theatre performers, as well as successful Music Educators.

Active in The National Association of Teachers of Singing, Ms. Henkle has served the Ohio Chapter as President and is former NATS District Governor for Ohio.